The Rt. Rev. Alex Dickson
Bishop in Residence for Anglican Essentials

St. Michael's Church in Charleston, SC, is seeking a full time Director of Ministries to Children and Families. Our mission is to "Transform Hearts through Jesus Christ", and this transformation begins in the "Hearts and Homes" of our members. As such, we believe in equipping adults to pass on their faith to the next generation by discipling their children and other young people in their sphere of influence.

We are looking to hire a director who is a devoted disciple of Jesus Christ, an effective educator, communicator and team-builder, and a joyful manager of people and processes to join our team at St. Michael's. This position will be responsible for developing and implementing family ministry strategies for the nursery, children's, youth and parent ministries.

St. Michael's is a member of the Worldwide Anglican Communion and a member of the Diocese of South Carolina. We are located in the heart of downtown Charleston, SC. To learn more about St. Michael's, please visit our website at www.stmichaelschurch.net.
